The sewer in Laurel Hill avenue has been completed by the public works department having required a longer time to build it than was expected owing to the ledge which was encountered for a distance of 100 feet. ROQUE PLAYERS TOURNAMENT WEEK

Number of Experts Are Already Here and Many More Will Come Today—Schedule of Games Likely to be Adopted—Concrete Borders Advocated.

All eyes are centered on Norwich this week among the roque players of the country for the 30th annual tournament of the National Roque association will be held here during the six days of this week. There are already a number of the out of town experts here and many more will arrive today and they will be at the grounds soon after their arrival. In this number will be National President Charles G. Williams of Washington, who expected to arrive late Sunday night from Oak Bluffs where he has been for the past week getting in some practice for the tourney.

Experts Arrive. On Saturday there came Horace T. Webb of West Chester, Pa., and today his father will come with a number of others from Philadelphia, including several who will not take part in the play. S. E. Dudley of Washington is also expected to arrive.

Thirtieth Year for Jacobus. It is thought now that there will be quite a delegation from Springfield headed by the veteran Charles Jacobus, who has attended every tournament held, this being his thirtieth. It is possible only one of the Clark brothers, who have previously been here, will come, but it is also reported that younger brother is likely to break into the game. Kramer of Philadelphia, a U. of P. man, who has proved a whirlwind on the courts, carried off the middle state championship this year, and it was hoped he could attend the national gathering. It was considered that he would not be able to get here last season, but the tournament would benefit by having him enrolled this year. Hagedorn, another fast Philadelphia player, is unable to come. Fuchs, a veteran from Washington, is expected, as is also C. Howard according to late reports.

Two Divisions. In looking over the names of those expected to come, the committee of arrangements considered that the first and second divisions would include the following with the possibility of more: Fuchs, Hagedorn, Foss, Williams, Webb, E. Clark, Kidd, Jacobus, W. Robinson, Kirk, Felton, Baker, Peck, Howard; Second—Dudley, Thompson, Whaley, Williamson, Rodman, E. Robinson, Whitaker, Sullivan. There will be many in the third division.

The score-card this year has been made by Woodruff Sullivan and is ready for the entries to be placed thereon.

National Secretary Foss on Saturday received word from E. G. Adams of Kingston, N. Y., stating that he would be in attendance at the tournament.

It is a new enthusiast and represents a new section of the country. S. McCrosby, who is at Oak Bluffs, may attend but will not take part in the tournament. He has been playing some at Oak Bluffs, but it was against the orders of his doctor. E. J. Morrison and W. C. Rodman of Philadelphia are expected today.

Concrete Borders. The equipping of some of the local courts with cement concrete borders is being agitated this season and it is possible that it will be tried at the tournament. In Philadelphia two such courts were built this year and it is claimed they are far in advance of the rubber bordered courts. Being so they give the ball a quick and accurate carom, the balls being of hard rubber. They have been tried in Chicago and Springfield with marked success. One of the excellent features about them is their permanency.

Harold Bosworth, National Champion.

W. L. Robinson of Mansfield, Mass., has arrived, and his son will also be here to take part. Undeclared Champion Cox will arrive Tuesday evening and will be anxious to play for it. These games must be played in the evening by vote of the association last year. This year it is being urged that the championship of the association be held in the evening instead of the morning or afternoon.

Two Challenge For Badge. For the Van Winkle badge King has been challenged by H. T. Webb, and the challenge has been accepted by King. Just who has the right to play for the medal may have to be determined by the association, as both are anxious to play for it.

All Eyes On Cox. W. L. Robinson of Mansfield, Mass., has arrived, and his son will also be here to take part. Undeclared Champion Cox will arrive Tuesday evening and will be anxious to play for it. These games must be played in the evening by vote of the association last year. This year it is being urged that the championship of the association be held in the evening instead of the morning or afternoon.

John Brewer Broke Parole Second Time. Allowed to Come to the City for First Time in Over a Year, and He Skipped.

Although he had been coming to the city almost every day for a long time on the team of the Norwich state hospital, John Brewer, better known as "Brewer," has been allowed to come to the city alone for the past 13 months until Sunday. He came here during the early afternoon with two other inmates of the institution. The other two returned, but Meachy failed to show up, and word was sent here and to New London to be on the lookout for him. About midnight he was caught as he was boarding a train for New York. His vest was torn and he insisted after being taken into custody that he be allowed to adjust his clothing. This is the second time he has broken his parole. When he went away first he boarded the steamer Lowell and went to Newport on an excursion, where he had the police telephone back that he was there, and he was sent for. He was not allowed from the institution alone for 13 months, and on Sunday, the first time alone, he again tried to leave the state. In this city on Sunday he said he expected to be discharged from the institution in about two weeks, but all hopes are now gone.

HUSBAND SOUGHT Mrs. Joseph Banovic Started for Watch Hill, But Did Not Come Back on the Boat.

On Saturday evening Joseph Banovic complained to the police that his wife with two children, aged four and one and a half years had started on the Boston and New London steamer for Watch Hill and they did not return on the boat. They live at No. 184 North Main street. He was much worried and New London and Watch Hill were communicated with concerning the missing part of the family, but nothing could be learned about them. As nothing further was heard from the husband, it is supposed the family returned by another route.

CHETUCKETT RIVER ROCKS. Thames Towboat Company Gets Contract to Remove Them.

The Thames Towboat company has been awarded a contract by the United States engineers' department for removing a submerged ledge in the Shetucket river in this city. The ledge is under the Laurel Hill bridge. There is approximately 100 cubic yards of rock to be broken and taken out.

Congressman Higgins notes that the mental in having the survey made for this work. The removal of the rocks will allow small steamers to reach the municipal wharf.

The contract was awarded Saturday and work will be started at once.

Fishing at Gardner Lake. Julius F. Pratt, Rippe Morgan, Will Huntington and Eugene Calkins terminated a pleasant week of camp life at Gardner Lake on Saturday and returned to their homes in this city. The fishing honors of the party were carried off by Fred Ott and Rippe Morgan, the former with a secreted bass and the latter with a pickerel that scaled close to the three pound mark.

Fishing Party. Coroner F. H. Brown and a party of friends went out to Silver Bel Haven on a fishing trip and brought back 20 good sized founders as the result of their day's sport.

The mines of Japan number 222 with a paid capital of 144,000,000 yen ($72,000,000).

afternoon, so that it will not interfere with the play.

Idea of Schedule. Another feature which it is thought will be adopted is the conducting of the tournament by a schedule whereby each player has a game in about every eight or nine according to the number of entries and being required to play in his turn, there is no opportunity for jockeying and waiting for someone else to play with the chances of losing.

The committee of arrangements this year includes President William H. T. Webb, S. E. Dudley, J. C. Kirk and Charles T. Bard.

It is thought now that there will be quite a delegation from Springfield headed by the veteran Charles Jacobus, who has attended every tournament held, this being his thirtieth. It is possible only one of the Clark brothers, who have previously been here, will come, but it is also reported that younger brother is likely to break into the game. The score-card this year has been made by Woodruff Sullivan and is ready for the entries to be placed thereon.

National Secretary Foss on Saturday received word from E. G. Adams of Kingston, N. Y., stating that he would be in attendance at the tournament.

It is a new enthusiast and represents a new section of the country. S. McCrosby, who is at Oak Bluffs, may attend but will not take part in the tournament. He has been playing some at Oak Bluffs, but it was against the orders of his doctor. E. J. Morrison and W. C. Rodman of Philadelphia are expected today.
